

For Immediate Release
May 25, 2008

Country School Students Donate to Hospice

First graders in Susan Schorr's and Katie Hertelendy's classes at The Country School used the proceeds earned from a bake sale to purchase a month's worth of cleaning supplies for Talbot Hospice. Students are shown here with some of the products which were purchased and delivered by room parent Kim Kearns.