

Lucy Tepper, Volunteer Coordinator at The Talbot Hospice Foundation, along with her children Story and Edie, admire the Memorial Tree at the Tidewater Inn during the Festival of Trees. The Friends of Hospice under the direction of Festival Chairmen Debbie Wilkens and Monica Heinsohn presented a highly successful event depicting the magic of the holiday season. The Talbot Hospice Foundation is grateful for the enthusiasm, commitment and tremendous fundraising events of The Friends of Hospice. Since 1986 more than two million dollars have been raised. Over 700 volunteers a year give selflessly of their time and talent to support this non profit organization which helps those facing end-of-life needs.
