

For Immediate Release July 3, 2008

Tepper hired at Talbot Hospice

The Talbot Hospice Foundation, Inc. has announced the appointment of Lucy Tepper as the new Volunteer Coordinator. Tepper will recruit and train volunteers and cultivate all aspects of the Hospice volunteer program. It is the goal of the Foundation to have the most highly regarded, effective and fulfilling volunteer program in the community as the volunteers perform a multitude of tasks necessary to the organization.

“Lucy brings a wealth of volunteering and event planning experience to the Foundation; she will be a wonderful addition and we are thrilled to have her as part of the team,” said Julie Crocker, Executive Director.

Tepper holds a B.A. in English from Denison University and is a native of Lexington, Kentucky. She spent 12 years in the television industry writing and producing for various networks including CBS, FOX and Home and Garden Television. She has chaired various events and most recently organized and recruited volunteers for a large fundraising event for the Historical Society of Talbot County.

Lucy and her husband Danny moved to Easton in 2004 from Wilton, Connecticut. They have two children at The Country School.